

Clarifications regarding press reports

Further to today's article by Capital.gr, SIDMA S.A. informs the investing public that the markets of Serbia and Albania are indeed examined with interest. Given that the company is in the research process in order to examine the potential for growth in these markets, it will inform the investing public promptly, as soon as the business plan is completed.

Regarding the nine month results, which are not yet available, they are influenced by the cyclicity of world prices which showed a decrease in the third quarter. The nine month results will be released by the 30th of November according to the Law.